

I do not want changes made to the no call list laws / rules that would result in me receiving telemarketing calls. If I cancel services with a company, I don't want or need them calling me for 18 months to see if I have changed my mind. Thank you for preventing this potential nightmare from becoming a reality.